INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 17 December 2021, in relation to the 2022 Framework Agreement on Reinsurance Business Cooperation entered into between the Company and PICC Re on 17 December 2021. Considering that the 2022 Framework Agreement on Reinsurance Business Cooperation entered into between the Company and PICC Re will expire on 31 December 2022, the Company and PICC Re entered into the Reinsurance Framework Agreement on 30 December 2022 to continue the current business cooperation relationship between the Company and PICC Re and ensure that the reinsurance businesses between the parties are conducted under the framework provided in the Agreement and in compliance with laws and regulations.

THE REINSURANCE FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

1. Date of signing

30 December 2022

2. Parties

- (1) the Company
- (2) PICC Re

3. Term

One year, commencing from 1 January 2023 and expiring on 31 December 2023.

4. Cooperative matters

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company agreed to cede insurance premiums to PICC Re from time to time, and PICC Re agreed to cede insurance premiums to the Company from time to time. The party hereto who acts as reinsurer shall accept the risks of and pay commissions to the other party hereto in return for the agreed insurance premiums received. The reinsurance businesses consist of treaty and facultative reinsurance businesses, and the risks covered include all lines of property and casualty insurance business risks.

5. Premiums ceded and commissions

Under the framework provided in the Agreement, the parties to the Agreement may enter into various types of reinsurance agreements in respect of particular reinsurance businesses. Such particular reinsurance agreements shall use standard contracts. For each particular reinsurance business, the amount of premiums to be ceded is determined based on the total premiums to be ceded of such business and the reinsurance share of PICC Re, the commissions shall be determined based on the amount of premiums to be ceded and the commission rate of the ceded business, and the commission rate of the ceded business is calculated based on the historical operating status of such business by using actuarial models and determined through open market negotiations. Generally speaking, for reinsurance agreements with a leading reinsurer, the reinsurance conditions are determined by the leading reinsurer, conditions of all reinsurers are consistent with that of the leading reinsurer; for reinsurance agreements without a leading reinsurer, the reinsurance conditions are the same among all reinsurers. The ceded premiums and commissions shall be paid in cash and the payment dates shall be determined according to the payment terms agreed by the parties to the agreements after arm's length negotiation when entering into the reinsurance agreements. The payment terms shall be no more favorable than that available to independent third parties.

INTERNAL CONTROL MEASURES

The terms, commission rate and other information in respect of each reinsurance business will be published via the reinsurance trading platform of the Company. The reinsurance trading platform is the only platform for reinsurance business transactions of the Company, which can be used for business information release, invitations, communications, share confirmations, etc. The invitation scope of the platform is among the reinsurers who are eligible in the reinsurance registration system of the CBIRC and have an account at the trading platform of the Company. All invited reinsurers may log in to the platform to view information relevant to the reinsurance business. When determining the reinsurer (including PICC Re), the Company mainly considers the reinsurer's credit rating, competence level, service ability, overall business cooperation situation, etc. According to the current settings of the reinsurance trading platform, the reinsurance conditions and commission rates provided to PICC Re via the reinsurance trading platform are exactly the same as that of other reinsurers. The Company can monitor the scale of premiums ceded to and commissions received from PICC Re on a monthly basis to ensure that they don't exceed the annual caps. In addition, the Company conducts annual internal special audits for related party transactions and reports the audit results to the Board and the supervisory committee of the Company. The Independent Directors and external auditors of the Company review and give their opinions on the continuing connected transactions on an annual basis.

ANNUAL CAPS

The annual caps for Outward Reinsurance Transactions for the year ending 31 December 2023 are estimated as follows:

	RMB million
Premiums ceded by the Company to PICC Re	6,000
Commissions paid to the Company by PICC Re	2,700

The Company determines the above annual cap for ceded premiums primarily based on the scale of total premiums expected to be ceded by the Company in the future and the historical data of premiums ceded to PICC Re. The scale of total premiums expected to be ceded in the future is determined based on the growth of historical annual premiums of the Company, the regulatory requirement on the percentage of premiums retained, the demand for risk diversification of the Company's business, etc. The above annual cap for commissions is calculated based on the above annual cap for ceded premiums and the commission rates of ceded business. The commission rates of ceded business are determined based on the commission rates of front-end direct insurance business and historical data of claims paid in the course of reinsurance business, and by reference to market conditions.

Based on the annual caps for the Inward Reinsurance Transactions for the year ending 31 December 2023, the Inward Reinsurance Transactions constitute de minimis continuing connected transactions under Rule 14A.76 of the Listing Rules and, therefore, are fully exempt from the independent shareholders' approval, annual review and all disclosure requirements.
